

Kobe YMCA College Japanese Department

Reduction system

There is a reduction of payment depending on the applicant's Japanese language proficiency. When meeting the requirement below, an applicant can take advantage of this system.

Those who passed N1 level of the Japanese Language Proficiency Test (JLPT) going to study at YMCA for more than 1 year                      ・ ・ ・ A reduction of 100,000JPY

Those who passed N1 level of the Japanese Language Proficiency Test (JLPT) going to study at YMCA for more than half an year . . . A reduction of 50,000JPY

Those who passed N2 level of the Japanese Language Proficiency Test (JLPT) going to study at YMCA for more than 1 year . . . A reduction of 50,000JPY

Those who passed N3 level of the Japanese Language Proficiency Test (JLPT) going to study at YMCA for more than 1 year and do not use Kanji in daily life.

・ ・ ・ A reduction of 30,000JPY

※Please apply it before the submission of tuition fee with the proof of Japanese language study.

※If a student dropped out of school for any reasons except going on to the next level of the education or employment, the reduction will be cancelled and we will require a refund for it.

※There is another reduction “Refer a student system” which a new student can apply to get a discount of screening fee (20,000JPY for a student visa, 10,000JPY for other visas). Application for both reductions at the same time is possible. If a new student would like to apply, please contact school.